Install Java JDK
1. Run eclipse-inst-win64.exe (M:\python\Raw_data_Formatter\Tools\SDK\ eclipse-inst-win64.exe)
2. If the below error pops up , Download & Install the suggested Java Version .
3. Or Run jdk-8u121-windows-x64 (M:\python\Raw_data_Formatter\Tools\SDK\ jdk-8u121-windows-x64.exe)

4. Click Next s
5. Note the Installation Folder & Click Next

6. Click Close

Java Installation Successfully Complete, Now Proceed to Eclipse Installation
Install Eclipse

1. Select Eclipse IDE for Java Developers

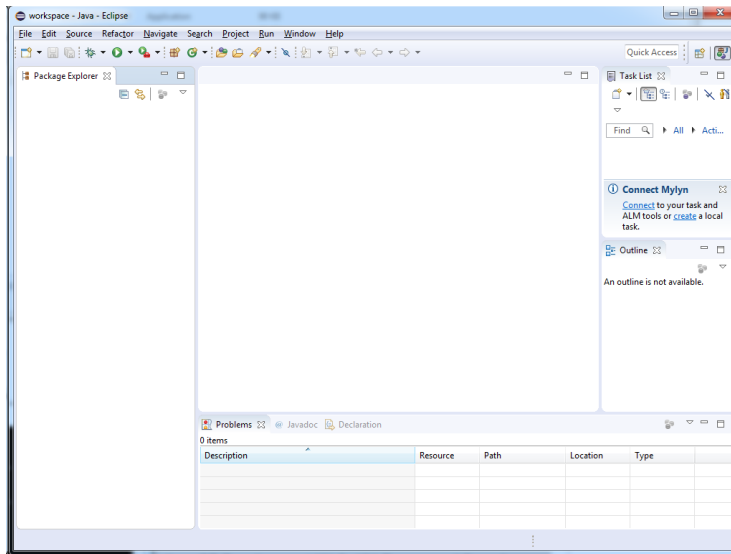

2. Select the Installation Directory & Click Install

3. Click Launch

4. Select the Workspace Folder where you want to store your Projects & Click OK
5. Workspace setup successfully if you see the Window Below.

Install PyDev

6. No Go To Help -> Eclipse Marketplace
7. Click "Search" Tab
8. In Find, Type "PyDev" & Click GO

9. Select all check boxes & Click Confirm

10. Click Finish

11. Select all & Click OK

After Java Update (if eclipse doesn't work)

Just copy this file :

```
c:/Program Files/Java/jre(5,6,7..any version)/bin/javaw.exe
```

to Eclipse Folder

*note only tested for Windows